Central Appalachian Network

The Central Appalachian Network (CAN)'s mission is to synergize efforts that maximize collective work in order to develop key sectors and promote community resilience, wealth, and wellness; to connect regional organizations and community-based practitioners; and to empower the next generation of leaders through peer-to-peer learning. CAN works primarily in six states: Kentucky, southeast Ohio, southwest Virginia, eastern Tennessee, western North Carolina, and West Virginia. Multi-state collaboration allows for a regional view of the current needs and future trajectories of the Central Appalachian economy, enabling strategic focus on large-scale goals that make both deep local impacts and broad regional impacts. CAN works in collaboration across organizations working on community economic development, including nonprofits, local government agencies, lenders, community groups, social enterprises, and academic institutions.

Mountain Association serves as fiscal sponsor for CAN.

Strategic Initiatives

The Strategic Initiatives program works to build relationships with communities in Eastern Kentucky by helping them design and build unique and place-based interventions in economic sectors that fill gaps and demonstrate what's possible in the region's new economy.

General Community Development

Historically, Mountain Association has provided administrative support services to and has maintained a joint employer relationship with two small nonprofits whose missions closely align with the organization-- Kentucky Natural Lands Trust (KNLT) and Kentucky Center for Economic Policy (KY Policy). KNLT is a nonprofit conservation organization working to secure funds to protect natural lands and provide for their long-term stewardship. KY Policy produces credible research to Kentuckians around complex issues such as public investments, taxes, education, criminal justice, health care, jobs, and the economy. As part of its mission, Mountain Association also serves as a fiscal sponsor for unincorporated nonprofit projects doing work that supports our goals. Fiscally sponsored projects are direct activities of Mountain

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy
The Mountain Association bylaws include a conflict of interest policy that specifies conflicts of interest to be avoided. The board of directors may make exceptions to the policy in specific cases when the situation is fully disclosed to them.

A provision of the conflict of interest policy is that each director, officer and employee must receive, sign and return a copy of a summary of the conflict of interest policy. Annually, Mountain Association board members and key employees sign the summary anew, affirming that they have read and understand the policy.

As part of the annual audit process, board members and other related parties fill out a related party questionnaire on which they report any interests and transactions that could give risk to conflicts of interest. Any conflicts of interest are disclosed as part of the audited financial statements.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Process for Top Official
Annually, the Mountain Association President is evaluated through a process guided by the board executive committee, composed of the board officers (chair, vice-chair, board treasurer and board secretary). The executive committee reports its findings to the board in closed session. After considering the committee's report, the board sets the President's compensation for the following year. The board takes into account compensation levels reported on Forms 990 for the CEOs of three to five comparable organizations as well as its knowledge of compensation of positions in the private and nonprofit sectors with comparable levels of responsibility, qualifications and achievement. The President does not participate in or vote on the decision on the President's compensation. This process last took place in May 2026.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b - Compensation Process for Officers
The President determines the compensation of other staff, including those who serve as corporate officers, following an annual performance review of each staff member. Along with considerations of equity among staff, the President takes into account compensation levels reported on Forms 990 for officer positions in three to five comparable organizations and their knowledge of compensation of positions in the private and nonprofit sectors with comparable levels of responsibility, qualifications and achievement. Every change in a staff salary is documented in a letter to the staff member.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 19 - Governing Documents Disclosure Explanation
